

ITALIAN USES KNIFE IN QUARREL AT MILLERS

John Clark Attempts to Act as Peacemaker and Receives Wounds That May Result in Death.

In an endeavor to prevent an altercation between a friend and two Italians at Millers Sunday night, J. W. Clark, an employee of the Desert Power and Milling company, sustained injuries that may cause his death.

The trouble happened in Stedman's saloon. Clark had just come off shift and had stopped in the saloon for a minute. While there a fight arose between a person named Kane and two Italians, J. Antonini and Dominick Antonini, brothers. Clark endeavored to separate the three and in the scuffle, J. Antonini stabbed him in the abdomen. The details are rather conflicting but according to the story of Clark, one of the brothers held him while the other wielded the knife. The wound is just below the navel and four intestines were severed.

Willard Kearns, who attempted to aid Clark also received cuts, the knife making a gash on the left hand and in the abdomen, but neither of the wounds are serious. An Austrian who engaged in the scuffle in attempting to wrest the knife from the Italian, received scratches on the breast and hip.

Immediately following the affray a telephone message was sent to this city and Drs. E. S. Grigsby and E. K. Smith hastened to the scene in one of the Consolidated Auto company's cars. Kearns, although injured himself, aided the medics in dressing the wounds of Clark who was brought here later and placed in the Miners' hospital. Dr. Grigsby stated that the knife after entering the abdomen, must have been given a twist, for the intestines were cut in a frightful manner.

The wound bled profusely and Clark was in a weakened condition when he arrived here.

Both the Italians were placed under arrest. Under Sheriff Mike Cahalan, of Esmeralda county arrived on the morning train and took with him on his return to Goldfield J. Antonini, who, it is believed, used the knife. The other brother was placed in jail at Millers.

There was considerable excitement in the mill city following the affair and threats were made to lynch the knife user. Had Clark died during the night it would have meant a lynching, for he is quite popular among his fellow employees.

About five years ago Clark resided in Tonopah and is still well known here. He is a quiet, unassuming person and very steady in his habits. He is a member of the Miners' Union.

There appears to be little doubt that J. Antonini is the person who attempted Clark's life, although the injured man is not positive. The Italian was covered with blood when arrested and his hands still bore the stains. Dominick later during the excitement denied having committed the deed and blamed his brother.

RAYCRAFT TO COMPLETE STATION AT MANHATTAN

WIRELESS APPARATUS IN THIS CITY IS NOW IN WORKING ORDER.

Arthur Raycraft leaves this morning for Manhattan where he goes to complete the wireless telegraph station at that camp. The local station was completed Sunday and as soon as Mr. Raycraft has the northern station in working order he will endeavor to communicate with this city.

An attempt was made Sunday night to get in communication with one of the coast stations, but no success resulted. Considerable trouble is caused by an arc at the sub station of the power company, which is near Mr. Raycraft's residence, and it is possible that the dispatches were arrested there.

Future developments will determine this and if it proves to be true, the masts of the wireless may be removed to another site.

THREE MILLS TO BE OPERATED AT MANHATTAN

LEASERS AND OPERATORS IN NORTHERN CAMP ARE HARD AT WORK.

Gilbert C. Ross, who returned from a trip to Manhattan and Round Mountain Sunday night states that both camps look prosperous.

Two mills are working in Manhattan and the third (the Veith mill) will probably soon be moved to Litigation Hill and there equipped with five additional stamps, a tube mill and possibly a cyanide plant.

"Dry Wash" Tom Wilson and several others are actively at work on the placers. Gold from both quartz and placer is being sent out of Manhattan almost daily.

Mr. Ross says that the Swanson-Ross-Layn lease on the Earl has about eight hundred tons of good ore ready for milling and at least two thousand tons more blocked out. On the 250-foot level, two shifts are engaged in stopping an ore body at present seven feet wide.

This ore runs between $40 and $50 a ton. Stopping is also going on actively on the 100-foot level.

On the whole Manhattan looks more prosperous than for a long time past. All that is needed is capital to do some real mining. And the capital could not be more profitably invested.

DAUGHTER ARRIVES.

A baby girl arrived at the home of A. Guisti Saturday and consequently there was jubilation in the Guisti household. Both mother and child are reported as progressing nicely by Dr. Cowden, who was in attendance.

NEW COMPANY AT THE NEVADA IS A PIPPIN

OPENING PERFORMANCE OF LEWIS AND LAKE CO. IS WELL RECEIVED.

And then came the Dancing Pippins.

The schedule was correct for the chorus of the Lewis and Lake Musical Comedy company that opened a week's engagement at the Nevada theater last night, were sure enough pippins. When it comes to passing judgment on choruses Tonopah is well qualified to render an expert opinion and the decision last night was expressed with one word, "pippins." It is a sure enough cute chorus, while the comedians are really funny. That may sound strange, but it is a fact and the roars of laughter that greeted each joke of the Irish, German and Hebrew fun makers must have repaid these artists for their exertions.

The opening bill was "The $10,000 Beauty" with dainty Marjorie Lake taking the part of the beauty. It is a laughable sketch and the comedians are given a chance to work overtime, which they do. The singing of Miss Lake and Miss Hazel Morris is exceptionally good and deserved the applause received. Especially is this true with Miss Morris, who is gifted with a voice of rare sweetness. The musical numbers rendered by the Emerald quartette were also good.

The company made good on their opening night and are assured of well filled houses during the remainder of their stay here which ends this coming Sunday night. The same sketch will be presented tonight and on Wednesday and Thursday the play will be "The Merry Gaffer." On Friday and Saturday they will present "The Rollicking Girl." Popular prices will continue, 25c, 50c and 75c. The seats can be secured at the Miners' Drug store.

SERVIAN PRIEST PAYS A VISIT TO THIS DISTRICT

ADMINISTRATOR OF SERVIAN CHURCH OF NORTH AMERICA IS IN TOWN.

Rev. Sebastian Dabovitch, administrator of the Servian church of North America, arrived from San Francisco Saturday on a visit to the local members of the church. Reverend Dabovitch has held several services during his stay here and last evening visited the cemetery and held brief services at the graves of departed members of the Servian church.

There is no Servian church in Nevada and owing to the scarcity of priests of this order in the United States the visits of Rev. Dabovitch are quite few. While this is his first visit to Tonopah, he is no stranger to the desert country, having held services at Candelaria and Columbus, twenty years ago. While here he is the guest of Frank Mandich.

ANOTHER CASE OF BLOOD POISON FROM ROUND MT.

YOUNG MINER BROUGHT IN FROM SOUTHERN CAMP SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Gilbert Pitchford, a young miner from Round Mountain, was brought into this city yesterday suffering from blood poisoning and Dr. Clark, who is in attendance, stated yesterday that the young man would be able to return to his home in a week or so.

A peculiar coincidence with Pitchford's illness, is that a few weeks ago his father, who is head blacksmith at the Round Mountain Mining company, was also brought to this city suffering from the same disease, blood poisoning having set in in his right hand. He only returned to his duties at the northern mining camp a few days ago.

Fresh milk and cream—Tonopah Dairy. 1f.
